¡L'empio punito. 1669?¡
score (61l, p.) 22 x 28 cm.
Contemporary ms.; without t. p.
According to Alfred Loewenberg, who bases his opinion on a contemporary letter of Salvator Rosa, the music of the opera was composed by Alessandro Melani, and the text written by Filippo Acciajuoli, adapted by Apollonii. (cf. Salvatore Rosa. Lettere inedite ... trascritte e annotate da Aldo de Rinaldi, Roma, 1939, p. 214-215) Previously, both the text and the music were ascribed by some authorities to Acciajuoli.

Middleton, Conyers, 1683–1750.
A free inquiry into the miraculous powers, which are supposed to have subsisted in the Christian church, from the earliest ages through several successive centuries. By which is shewn, that we have no sufficient reason to believe, upon the authority of the primitive fathers, that any such powers were continued to the church, after the days of the Apostles. 3d ed.
